

Student Support Services List

Academic / Traineeship Support

Future Force Tel: 03 9375 3100	The first and most obvious area of support is with Future Force itself. Your trainer is available to you not only through their training visits, but via telephone (incl. mobile) at any time should you require assistance or support either with your training or with other issues within the workplace or elsewhere. Where your trainer is unable to assist, the trainer will engage management who shall personally provide support or endeavour to provide an alternative to assist you.
The Reading & Writing Hotline www.literacyline.edu.au Tel: 1300 655 506	For assistance with literacy and advice on short courses
Sarina Russo www.sarina russo.com.au	For assistance with your government traineeship registration or for any information regarding your traineeship
Victorian Department of Education & Training www.skills.vic.gov.au	This may be useful if the situation arises where a field officer is required. Field officers can assist with such things as investigating disputes between trainees and employers, or simply providing advice to trainees
